Date Range:

1918 - 1999

Creator:

Alexander, Leeland N.

Extent:

5 Linear Feet

Provenance:

Leeland Alexander

Biographical Sketch:

In March 1972, the Oklahoma legislature established a branch campus of the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine in Tulsa, covering the last two years of clinical work. Leeland Alexander was a central figure during the formative years of this endeavor, addressing logistical concerns such as securing office space—and eventually campuses—on behalf of the University. Mr. Alexander has served the University in various positions ranging from Assistant Dean for Administration and Finance to Associate Vice President for Community Advancement.

Scope and Content:

This collection contains materials collected by Mr. Alexander in his capacity as a longtime administrator, including correspondence, miscellaneous business papers, publications, photographs, programs, and promotional materials.

Collection Restrictions:

Currently the materials are restricted to in-house research.

Usage Restrictions:

All material is copyrighted and permission must be acquired to publish.

Processed by:

Erica K. Argyropoulos, Sarah Bryson, and Alyssa Migdalski
